Hunters are responsible for purchasing their hunting license, habitat stamps, and big game tags through the New Mexico Game and Fish.

Hunter understands and agrees that Antler Mountain Outfitters enforces a wounded animal policy. If a hunter wounds an animal ultimately determined by the (guide), they must work to retrieve that animal for a minimum of 24 hours. Antler Mountain Outfitters reserves the right to end any hunt due to a hunter mortally wounding an animal. This will be at the sole discretion of the guide/outfitter. We strive to retrieve any and all animals shot to the best of our ability.

All draw hunts include meals and lodging, transportation during your hunt, field care of your animal, and a guide for the number of days specified on hunt. Hunters are responsible for their own transportation to and from camp location, state license, habitat stamps, big game tag, taxidermy, meat processing, shipping of game, and New Mexico gross receipts tax.

On guided draw hunts there is no deposit required to apply but a 50% deposit is due immediately upon drawing a big game tag and the remainder of the hunt cost is due 30 days prior to arrival in camp. A 50% deposit is required to book a landowner or private land tag and remainder of the hunt cost is due 30 days prior to arrival in camp. No checks will be accepted upon arrival to camp. No exceptions!

Deposits are nonrefundable. If for any reason you have to cancel your hunt, deposits may be transferred to a future hunt. Any cancellations less than 60 days prior to your hunt may be subject to forfeiture.
